Press Release

Red Leicester choir welcomes new members

This Wednesday, Red Leicester community choir hosts a New Members evening at the Secular Hall, Humberstone Gate. It is a wonderful opportunity to hear music from around the world sung in four part harmony. Anyone can join this enthusiastic group of singers at any time, there is no audition.

Colleen Molloy who went to the last new members' evening said:

"I didn't think I could sing. I can't read music. But the choir was so welcoming and supportive, I found my voice. It is such a joy to sing."

Note to editors:

1. Red Leicester choir is an enthusiastic group with a passion for singing in unaccompanied four part harmony.
2. The choir is open access, so there are no auditions.
3. The choir's Musical Director is classically trained Jane Bursnall, who arranges many of the songs.
4. Red Leicester performs locally and nationally in support of national and international causes. In the last year, the choir raised over £2,000 for charity. They also busk in Market Street on the first Saturday of every month.
