

In aid of
The Lord Mayors 'Forget Me Not'
Appeal for dementia care

Roy Bailey

One of the folk world's finest voices, Roy Bailey has been performing for more than 40 years both in the UK and abroad. He has sung in folk clubs, in arts centres and in front of huge festival audiences at Sidmouth International Festival, Vancouver Folk Festival, the National Festival in Australia and many, many more. His warmth and humour create a unique atmosphere of humanity and comradeship.

As powerful and moving as anything I'd heard by The Clash – Billy Bragg

plus Red Leicester Choir

Open access community choir - songs of social and political protest, songs of peace, worldwide celebration, struggle and change.

No auditions – rehearsals Wednesday evenings at Secular Hall.

Wednesday 3 November

Doors open 8pm for performance at 9pm.

Tickets: £10

THE MUSICIAN, Clyde Street, Leicester LE1 2DE

0116 251 0080 – www.themusicianpub.co.uk

The Musician has full disabled access and facilities.

More about dementia, the Forget-Me-Not appeal and how you can help at bit.ly/uhl-forget-me-not

In aid of
The Lord Mayors 'Forget Me Not'
Appeal for dementia care

Roy Bailey

One of the folk world's finest voices, Roy Bailey has been performing for more than 40 years both in the UK and abroad. He has sung in folk clubs, in arts centres and in front of huge festival audiences at Sidmouth International Festival, Vancouver Folk Festival, the National Festival in Australia and many, many more. His warmth and humour create a unique atmosphere of humanity and comradeship.

As powerful and moving as anything I'd heard by The Clash – Billy Bragg

plus Red Leicester Choir

Open access community choir - songs of social and political protest, songs of peace, worldwide celebration, struggle and change.

No auditions – rehearsals Wednesday evenings at Secular Hall.

Wednesday 3 November

Doors open 8pm for performance at 9pm.

Tickets: £10

THE MUSICIAN, Clyde Street, Leicester LE1 2DE

0116 251 0080 – www.themusicianpub.co.uk

The Musician has full disabled access and facilities.

More about dementia, the Forget-Me-Not appeal and how you can help at bit.ly/uhl-forget-me-not